

EX-LEAGUE PITCHERS SPARKED BY GIANTS

Campbell and Berger Found for Sixteen Safeties of All Sorts and Sizes.

MOBILE SEES OLD STARS

Jacobson Gives a Run Away, but Demaree Proves Stingy to His Old Mates.

Mobile, Ala., March 30.—The Giants sparked the delivery of Bill Campbell, former Cincinnati pitcher, with great force this afternoon and by way of a farewell to Mobile, the home team, by a score of 10 to 1. They also inserted some hitting off the pitching of Heinie Berger, formerly of the Cleveland, and between the two ex-leaguers enjoyed an afternoon of heavy hitting. They garnered sixteen safeties in all and ran the gamut from four baggers to singles.

McGraw gave the natives a chance to see two former Mobile players, Demaree and Jacobson, in a New York uniform and both of those players made their presence felt. Jacobson muffed a fly ball and allowed the only Mobile run to filter home, but he battled well. Demaree both batted and pitched well. His one time associates found his delivery a mystery.

Rube Marquard took his second turn on the mound since joining the team and was sufficiently effective. The local count was made of him and originated in a base on balls, but the next two men went out on flies and the Rube would have blanked the Gulls if Jacobson had not muffed the fly.

With a warm windless day the Giants felt like cutting loose and their hitting was clean and spirited. Doyle sent in two hits in the first inning, three in the second, and in the fourth inning, with man on base, Herzog shot the ball over the right field fence for a home run. Meyers and Herzog manouevred a double steal in the fifth inning, and the Giants led 4 to 0.

Murray touched up the opposing twirlers for three hits, one coming in the ninth inning. His single in that round, an error and a two-bagger by Herzog, cleaned up the score. The Giants led 10 to 0. In the first inning Herzog made a difficult nab of a ground ball and shut off a hit with a swift throw to first.

Two attempts to sacrifice by the Giants failed because the ball was tapped directly in front of the plate and the catcher threw to second for a force. There were three cases of poor base running by the Giants. Meyers came surging around third on an infield hit, but he was held by the catcher and he was out. Herzog broke away from second too soon and was nipped at third by the catcher. Herzog, running for Jacobson, halted between bases on Doyle's fly, which fell safe, and was forced at second. On the whole, however, the Giants played a hard, aggressive game, the best they have played for over a week.

JERSEY CITY RETURNS FROM BERMUDA CAMP

Various Opinions Expressed as to Prospects of Chance's New Yorks.

SOME DOUBT AS TO CHASE

Jack Knight and Larry Schlafly Differ as to Hal's Ability to Play Second.

With sunburned faces and the skin peeling off their noses, the Jersey City Skeeters arrived here from Bermuda yesterday on the Royal Mail steamer Orontea. It was shortly after the noon hour when the dozen or more players, laden with grips and bags, hurried up the gangway.

The Skeeters spent less than three weeks in Bermuda practicing on the Hamilton Cricket Field with Frank Chance's New York Americans, yet the fact that they had come back in fine shape for the coming exhibition games at West Side Park.

Conflicting opinions were expressed by several Skeeters as to the future achievements of Chance's men. The average ball player doesn't talk in glowing terms of his fellow player. In fact a large percentage of major and minor league ball players are pessimists.

Long Jack Knight, once on the bench of the New York Americans, but now worrying along at second base for Jersey City, had a direct opposite opinion from that expressed by Larry Schlafly, the leading manager of the Skeeters. In reply to a series of questions by THE SUN, Jack Knight said:

"I don't believe that Frank Chance will play first base all the season. He is a good player, but he is not a first baseman. He is just the man Mr. Parrell has been in need of for years. He is a born leader and knows how to get results. He will have fairly smooth sailing. He will have fairly smooth sailing. He will have fairly smooth sailing."

Chance is the real manager, however, and if there are defects he will provide a remedy. He is just the man Mr. Parrell has been in need of for years. He is a born leader and knows how to get results. He will have fairly smooth sailing. He will have fairly smooth sailing. He will have fairly smooth sailing."

Schafly, similarly cross-examined, differed with Knight as to Chance and Chase. "I don't have any doubt about Chase as a second baseman. Of course the position is new to him and he has not had much practice because of his recent injury. But he knows his job and is proving it. It is only a question of time when he will be able to cover the middle bag in sensational style. Then you'll see some fireworks."

The first two games in the series to Reading, the opening contest being slated for next Tuesday night at the stadium, will be played to-morrow. The third and fourth games will be staged in Troy, April 4 and 5. Should each club win two of the first four games, the Troy club is willing to toss a coin to determine the floor to play on.

Tiger Eleven Goes Outdoors.

PRINCETON, N. J., March 30.—Princeton's preparation for the coming football season is well advanced. The team is now in the gymnasium for the past three days, and has been working almost entirely to build up formation and drill. The players will be in charge of Tom Wilson, who coached the line during the last season, and Arthur Blumenthal, the varsity center.

JORDAN FINISHES STRONG.

Xavier Crack Defeats Big Field in Morningglade A. C. Run.

Eddie Jordan of the Xavier A. C. won the run of the Morningglade A. C. yesterday from a field of fifty runners who were racing for the open race in the club on April 13. Jake Maier of the home club gave the Xavier crack a good race all the way.

Maier, who was in the lead at the first mile, where Maier challenged the leader. After two miles of racing Maier went to the front and led until half a mile from home, where Jordan shot him and finished strongly, by 100 yards. Billy Galvin of the Irish American had the better of a sharp tussle for third place with Rigby. The first ten finished as follows:

MARATHONERS HOLD TRYOUT.

Harry Smith Concedes Handicap and Wins Fifteen Mile Run.

With Billy Quell, the professional, setting the pace for him, Harry Smith of the Bronx Church House beat a small field of marathon runners in the fifteen mile trial of the Brookhaven Club yesterday. The run was arranged as a trial for the local men engaged in the Boston marathon on April 13, and Smith in making the test more severe allowed a handicap of three minutes to the other starters.

Smith and Quell ran in close company all the way and at the twelve mile mark they overhauled the leader of the long race, Harry Quell, who had been running strongly and reached the clubhouse six minutes before the second man, George Honohan. The course led around the Van Cortlandt Park golf links and included some stiff hills.

WINNIPEG HEAVY TO BOX GUNBOAT SMITH

Gigantic Fred McKay Will Face Five Ounce Shells at Fairmont A. C.

ABE ATTELL MEETS WALSH

Bill Papke Finds Himself Barred by France, England and New York State.

Gunboat Smith, conquer of Bombarrier Wells, will tackle a real giant in Fred McKay, the Winnipeg policeman, at the Fairmont A. C. to-morrow night. Two years ago McKay came down from Canada with a chip on his shoulder, but several mixed sluggers knocked both fight and ambition out of him in quick succession.

McKay's progress has been rapid in the last six months. He has knocked out some husky bruisers and has come to be regarded as a dangerous person. He is 6 feet 3 inches tall, weighs 220 pounds and can hit like a pile driver.

McKay has a long reach and uses his left hand with some degree of skill. His right blow is a right straight from the shoulder, which has power enough to knock anybody. The Canadian's confidence has increased steadily so that he actually believes that he can whip any of the white hopes. He saw Smith stop anybody. He asked for a match with the Californian.

It remains to be seen, however, whether McKay's courage asserts itself when he finds himself face to face with the heavy champion. Ring slugs are not known to have many exploded phobias are inclined to believe that the moment the Gunboat hits the target with a five ounce shell it will be curtains for the Winnipeg copper.

Jack (Twin) Sullivan, the only held bantamweight title for many years, is anything like his former self. He will provide some interesting situations when he meets A. B. Attell at the Forty-second Street Sporting Club next Thursday night.

Walsh boxed a fierce twelve round draw with Attell in Boston last October. In 1907 Attell got a round decision over Walsh in Indianapolis. Attell named Ollie Kirk and promptly declared that he had regained his championship form. The Chicago man's measure.

The Brooklynite averaged 208 for 150 games. In Syracuse Smith vanquished Bernard Maurer, the State champion, and so forth. He will be the Grand Central alley on Wednesday night for a return series of 6 out of 11. The night previous he will roll against Riddell at the Metropolitan alley.

VELODROME OPENING GOES OVER.

Drizzle Makes Track Too Slippery for Safe Riding.

The opening of the cycle racing season at the Newark Velodrome was set back a week by the rain yesterday afternoon. Everything was set for the 1913 inaugural race, but the rain was too much for the riders. The race was postponed until to-morrow.

Many city officials were present, including B. M. Shanley, Jr., of the Playground Commission, who was to start the feature race of the day, the Shanley Handicap. The race was postponed until to-morrow.

Frank Klaus's manager writes to friends that the twenty round bout between the Pittsburgher and the Frenchman in Paris will be for the title of "light heavyweight champion of all Europe."

Klaus whipped Carpentier to a seventh round stoppage. The Frenchman's manager, however, decided to save him from a knockout. Klaus, therefore, is going after more of the easy money that American fighters have been taking away from the French sporting public.

Bill Papke finds himself in an awkward predicament. Some time ago when he refused to keep an engagement at a local club he declined to make an explanation and has been suspended. Papke was indefinitely suspended. Papke was indefinitely suspended.

John L. Sullivan referred a fight in San Francisco the other evening and called upon the crowd to aid the food sufferers. John started the ball rolling by dropping a five dollar bill in the hat. In less than fifteen minutes $3,000 had been collected.

"Who will be Freddie Welsh's first opponent in a local bout? Jack Britton or Joe Rivers may be the man."

This will be a week of hard work for Joe Rivers. Leach Cross, who are matched to box ten rounds at the Fairmont A. C. on April 8. Rivers showed off at Dal Hawkins's roadhouse yesterday and several hundred fight fans looked on.

Cross will have strenuous training at a New Polo A. to-day. Leach will understand why so many shrewd persons think that Rivers will knock him out this time.

Willie Beecher and Danny Ridge will meet in a ten round bout at the opening of the Paddock A. C. to-morrow. Al McCoy and Jimmy Carter will clash in the semi-final.

Manhattan Chess Club Dines.

More than one hundred members of the Manhattan Chess Club attended the sixtieth annual dinner of that organization at the Hotel Astor Saturday night. Aristides Martinez, president of the Brooklyn Chess Club, opened the speechmaking and introduced Walter J. Macdonald as toastmaster.

The speakers included Dr. L. R. Blain, Simon R. Tilden, Dr. Louis Cohn, Dr. Charles Pick, George H. Kendall, Major J. Moore Hamilton, J. S. Curry, Harvey J. Cohen, Frederick R. Lax, Lazar Sternberg, William M. de Visser, L. Lawrence Stern, Lester Keene and A. Lazinsky.

MATT WINN GOING ABROAD.

Manager of Juarez and Churchill Downs Talks on Racing.

Matt J. Winn, who made horseracing a success at Juarez, Mexico, and also has improved the sport at Churchill Downs, Louisville, arrived here yesterday. He is on his way to Europe for a short vacation and will sail on the Mauretania on Wednesday. Winn spent the afternoon with old friends, including James H. Dwyer, who brought him across several years ago to manage the running meetings at Empire City.

Winn is a Kentuckian. He is a practical business man and horseman, and has been successful in a strictly business basis. He is known among the turfmen as a square dealer and a champion of clean sport.

The task of building up the annual winter racing meeting at Juarez was assigned to Winn from the start. At first many obstacles were in the way. Juarez had to compete with Oakland and Jacksonville. But when the track was opened, Winn, in addition to managing the track, also helped in the stewards' stand. He kept his eyes and ears open, and soon evolved himself into a successful manager of the gates.

As the quality of the racing improved the attendance increased. The fact that Willie Applegate, who has a great experience in racing, was in the city, and authorized him to operate a syndicate betting ring was another boost. Mutuels were tried with poor results a year ago, so Winn excluded them in favor of the fixed odds. A recent meeting, however, long meeting that closed a week ago yesterday netted a handsome profit for the first time since the Mexican track opened.

Winn has made El Paso prosperous, said Winn yesterday. "The Juarez meeting this winter brought thousands of dollars into that city. Persons who at first opposed us now are our advocates. A big hotel, up to date in every particular, afforded excellent accommodations for visitors during the recent meeting. It filled a long felt want. Our future is bright. We are going to make the city a search of luxury combined with sport."

"We are making preparations for a big meeting at Churchill Downs this spring. The Kentucky Derby is a great event. We are going to make the city a search of luxury combined with sport."

The Kentucky Derby is a great event. We are going to make the city a search of luxury combined with sport."

During his stay abroad Winn expects to see some racing in England and France.
